Academic Advising Certificates and Training

The Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center offers certificates for academic advisors each semester. The schedule for this fall is available below.

If you have attended sessions in the past and need to know which sessions you have left to receive your certificate, please email your name and department to advising@fhsu.edu for assistance.

NOTE: This is open to both faculty and staff. Please feel free to bring your lunch to the session.

RSVP: Please let us know if you are planning to attend by replying to advising@fhsu.edu. We will send you a calendar entry that you will need to “Accept and Send the Response Now”. This will allow us to have the appropriate room size and number of handouts. We look forward to seeing you at our sessions.

ADVISING SPECIAL POPULATIONS CERTIFICATE

This certificate will provide information on working with the diverse needs of our students. Whether you are currently advising students in the population or not, you will gain information that can assist you. Participants must attend each session to receive the certificate. The following are the dates for the spring sessions.

Novels For Hope

Novels for Hope is a diversity book club which provides an opportunity to read and discuss 2-3 books a semester. Each book and discussion is free-standing, meaning signing up for one book/discussion does not require participation in others.

We will offer a free copy of the book to the first 30 on-campus participants. We work on an honor system and ask that you only sign up to receive a book if you can attend the discussion. The book discussion will be available for the first time via Zoom if those who are not on campus would like to participate in the discussion of this book.

Our second Novels for Hope Book is Just Mercy by Bryan Stevenson. The discussion will take place on November 19 from @3pm in Forsyth Library. To sign up, please visit the following link:
<https://tigerlink.fhsu.edu/submitter/form/start/352253>.

FHSU Dept. of Music and Theatre Presents: Ken Ludwig's A Comedy of Tenors

November 14 through November 17; Times below
Felten-Start Theatre

Nov. 14, 15, 16 – 7:30 P.M. Curtain
Nov. 17 – 2:30 P.M. Matinee

After 30 years, comic genius Ken Ludwig has finally delivered his sequel to his 1989 Tony Award winning comedy Lend Me a Tenor. We're in 1930s Paris, with one hotel suite, four tenors, two wives, three girlfriends and a stadium full of screaming fans. The stage is set for the concert of the century — as long as producer Henry Saunders can keep Italian superstar Tito and his hot-blooded wife, Maria, from causing runaway chaos. An uproarious ride full of mistaken identities, bedroom hi-jinks and farcical delight- it hasn't met a rib it can't tickle.

Entrepreneur Direct: Speaker Series

Tuesday, November 19; 12:00-1:15pm
The Robbins Center, Eagle Communications Hall

Please join us for our FREE event open to faculty, staff, students, and the public. A reception with appetizers and refreshments is included in the last half of the event. Entrepreneur Direct is a speaker series featuring successful entrepreneurs in an informal setting. The program is intended to connect students with experienced professionals who have stories and advice to share.

Our speaker is Carolina Recchi. She is a tech entrepreneur, COO and co-founder of EdSights. EdSights uses artificial intelligence to help universities increase graduation rates. Edsights works with universities all over the nation and recently secured $1 million in funding from Techstars, Rondo Ventures, and the Kauffman Foundation.

Carolina, along with her sister and co-founder Claudia, immigrated to the US from Italy to attend college. Carolina graduated from Babson College with a degree in international business. She is a 2018 Techstars accelerator program graduate. To date, her company has saved colleges $1.8 million in tuition revenue. Carolina is 25 years old.

This event is organized by the FHSU Center for Entrepreneurship. For more information, please visit:

MDC Workshop – Customer Service in the Digital Age

Tuesday, November 19; 1:00-4:30pm
Sternberg Museum, Engel Ed. Classroom

Face-to-face conversations and phone calls have been replaced with Facebook posts, tweets, snaps, and texts. Living in an immediate, technological, and informational age has an impact on your customer service strategy – don’t let communication misunderstanding determine your customer’s experience! In “Customer Service in the Digital Age”, you will learn the latest trends in email, instant messaging, customer-service oriented websites, and social media posting. We’ll also cover what to do when an angry customer posts a negative review or comment. The workshop will cover online customer service tools and application strategies for your business to implement, as well as discuss what kind of future trends to expect.

Please register by November 12.

Register for both “First Impressions Matter” and “Customer Service in a Digital Age” on Nov. 19 for a discounted price of $200!*

How Are You? - Conversation on Mental Health with Annalise Sinclair

Wednesday, November 20; 6:00pm

Memorial Union, Fort Hays Ballroom

Every day, we are asked “how are you?” by strangers and friends, alike. It is easy to mindlessly go through this simple exchange of pleasantries, but what happens when we are not “fine” or “good”? Fear of rejection from loved ones or the shame of not being able to handle things on our own can cause us to bottle up our emotions - depression, anxiety, pain - to keep them hidden from the people that care about us most. For many, this can leave us feeling isolated and alone in our time of need. By exploring the ways that authenticity and personal wellness connect, Annalise opens the door for honest conversations about how we support our friends during times of crisis.

This event free to all and is sponsored by the Panhellenic Council, Interfraternity Council, and Student Engagement. Questions? Contact Jacob Ternes at jaternes@fhsu.edu

The program is designed to spread holiday cheer to local children who may not other receive Christmas presents. All ages are welcome to volunteer for toy production, but children 12 and under must be accompanied by an adult. Jobs include sanding, running parts from station to station, putting on wheels, attaching parts, finishing and, for those who have experience, running some machine operations.

If you cannot volunteer the entire time – please come and go as it fits into your schedule. The event will be held in the Center for Applied Technology (wood shop). No need to RSVP – just show up the day of the event.
